

Five To Twelve

do you know your destination common get about the crossing line and let's see what's there behind you'll find what you lived for and believe me – it's out of imagination reach out –	it's an offer for your whole life the enemy –	is pulling on your life's rope five to twelve -	the livebomb's tickin to the end your own will-	it's up to you to decide

Mankind gets a chance to say yes or no Even you who give a shit about So better life your life now Cause one day we all have to pay It's in your hands to see the truth
